KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Jamil Chade

In Person

Renowned Brazilian journalist and international correspondent based in Europe, with a degree in International Relations from PUC/SP and a columnist for UOL. Voted one of the most admired journalists in Brazil and twice named best foreign correspondent, he has traveled to over 70 countries covering papal trips, UN missions, and conflict zones. His investigative reporting on the backstage of world sports has earned him multiple awards, and his coverage spans crucial issues such as refugees, hunger, human rights, and international politics, regularly contributing to major outlets like the BBC, The Guardian, and El País. Beyond journalism, Chade served as a researcher for Brazil's National Truth Commission, collaborates with Transparency International's expert network, and has published books that received international acclaim, including the Nicolas Bouvier Award in Switzerland and finalist spots for the Jabuti Award.
